Selectmen's Meeting

FEBRUARY 4, 1986 - by VIRGINIA ARRAL

BOAT IDENTIFICATION SYSTEM

Harbormaster Steven Mach presented Selectmen last Tuesday with a sample of the boat identification system he has put into effect. The Selectmen endorsed the new concept at a previous meeting.

Mach explained the ID cards will come in two colors. The first, ivory color, will designate the names alphabetically of boat owners. The second, gold color, will list boat names alphabetically. The completed cards will be made available to the Selectmen's office and at the harbormaster's office on the wharf, said Mach.

Selectmen and Mach agreed the list of names and boats could be placed on a floppy disc for the Town Hall computer and be readily available for anyone who needs it and as a backup to the cards.

Persons needing cards to fill out may obtain them at either the Selectmen's office, the Harbormaster's office, or at the town's boatyards. The Harbormaster said he would like to have the sign-ups done voluntarily; at this time it is not mandatory. "This is to the boat owner's advantage to enable quicker action in locating a disabled boat," said Mach. There is a place on the card for mooring numbers, Mach said, and he would like to eventually assign mooring numbers and retain a record of them.

Mach explained the system will enable public officials, such as harbormasters, (and not just Mattapoisett, but other towns), the police departments and the Coast Guard to respond to a call for assistance more swiftly. The cards will have information such as the boat owner's name and address, telephone number, and whom to contact in an emergency, the description of the boat and mooring information. Mach added that any boat moored in the harbor big enough to go out of the harbor should have a card on file; this does not include skiffs.

In other business, Selectmen:

RECEIVED A REPORT from the Board of Health on the letters that were sent to homeowners in the section of the Mattapoisett River extending from the pumping station to the Arch Bridge notifying them a pipe emptying sewage and gray water into the river would be plugged on February 3rd. This has been done, the Selectmen noted.

The homeowners were asked if "you feel your septic system may be a contributing factor to this pollution problem, we suggest you contact this office (the Board of Health). If your home is a contributing factor, once this pipe is plugged, you will undoubtedly have a problem with your septic system. We are not attempting to blame any one household, but are only attempting to solve this pollution problem," the letter stated.

As of last Friday, February 7th, Donald Wood, Health Agent, said there have been no results from the plugging other than a few telephone calls from those receiving the letters for more information as to the consequence of the closure. Wood said the pipe isn't totally closed, but that there is a trickle coming from the pipe. The

WILL REQUEST AN UPDATE of the New Bedford Women's Center Rape Crisis Project to verify its effectiveness in Mattapoisett before recommending an article be placed in the annual town warrant seeking $2,000 for the crisis project. The town voted the $2,000 at last year's meeting.

Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta recommended the Finance Committee be invited to the joint meeting with the Project's representative. Selectman James Huntoon felt they (the Crisis Project) is fulfilling a need in Mattapoisett.

RECEIVED from Andrew J. Santos, Old Rochester Regional School Associate Superintendent for Business, a list of long-range Capital Improvements the Mattapoisett School Committee considers to be needed at the Center and Old Hammondtown Schools.

In terms of priority, the boilers at Center School and the roof at Old Hammondtown School are in need of the most immediate attention. It was suggested the School Committee meet with the Selectmen to discuss a long-range financial plan.

Although the oldest section of Center School is 88 years old (1898), the next oldest section 49 years old (1937), and the newest section 32 years old (1954), the buildings are structurally sound. The Center School is in need of major upgrading or replacement of the cast iron sectional boilers at an estimated cost range of $30,000 to $60,000, the letter noted.

The Old Hammondtown School is relatively newer with the oldest section being 20 years old (1966) and the newest section only 10 years old (1976). However, this building needs replacement of the roof at

Additionally, the committee recommended window openings at the Center School with a cost range from $50,000 to $80,000. These major capital improvements may be needed in the next five to ten years, the committee reported.

NOTED A COMMUNICATION regarding the solution to the pollution control problem at Old Rochester Regional High School has had the conditional approval by the State Department of Environmental Quality Engineering (DEQE).

The DEQE had an engineer review the plans of the project submitted by Thompson Consultants of Marion on behalf of ORR to repair, replace or rehabilitate existing treatment system equipment and components. The DEQE approved the plans with the following conditions: that waste sludge be pumped, trucked and disposed of by a licensed hauler; operation and maintenance must be under strict control of state rules; all work performed in strict accordance with approved plan and no changes to be made without prior written approval of

The DEQE further advised, "that although the proposed work will better the situation at the facility, this still may not allow the treatment system to consistently produce an effluent which will meet permit limits. The department strongly urges that alternative treatment schemes be further investigated prior to initiating the repair/rehabilitation work proposed."

RECEIVED from the Mattapoisett School Committee an expression of gratitude for "support and physical legwork you (the Selectmen) contributed toward resolving the drainage problem at Center School". School Committee Chairman Maureen Best wrote, "It is this solid show of not just support, but actual encouragement and cooperation, which makes it a pleasure to serve the town of Mattapoisett."

Chairman DeCosta said the pipe has been delivered and will be installed as soon as Highway Surveyor Manuel Nunes has the time and manpower to do the work.

AGREED TO PLACE AN ARTICLE in the Town Meeting Warrant on behalf of the Mattapoisett School Committee seeking funds in the amount of $315.84 for a retroactive rate increase bill from Crystal Spring School for a special needs student.

WILL TAKE under advisement the name of Donald E. Doyon, 10 Knollwood Drive, who has expressed an interest in being named a member of the Town Sports and Athletics Committee.

Our thanks goes to the National Honor Society Faculty Advisor at Old Rochester, Barbara Meehan, for her support. We would also like to thank students Christine Knight and Debbie Herman, who were Chairpersons of the event, and Sippican Ocean Systems who donated their office and telephones.

The American Heart Association is extremely grateful for the communities' marvelous response, and eagerly awaits the return of these generous pledges so the money can be allocated as soon as possible for research, education, and community programs to continue the fight against cardiovascular disease.

events and hundreds of thousands of tulips in every shape and color. This year's theme will be "The Wizard of Oz".

The trip includes motorcoach transportation, 3 nights at the Chateau Laurier, one brunch, three dinners, a guided tour of Ottawa, Rideau Canal Cruise, Multi-Travel Escort, Luggage Handling, Taxes and Gratuities.

The motorcoach will depart early in the morning from Marion, traveling north to Canada's capital city of Ottawa, arriving late in the afternoon at the elegant Chateau Laurier, a beautifully furnished "castle" located in the heart of the city, within walking distance to the Festival of Spring activities and shopping. The first evening will include a magnificent fireworks display and, weather permitting, the Festival's Canal Flotilla, a spectacular display of decorated boats on the Rideau Canal.

Day 2 will include a guided tour of Ottawa's major attractions with free time in the afternoon.

Day 3 you will be treated to a cruise along the Rideau Canal with tulips lining the edges of the canal to make it a truly scenic cruise.

Leaving the morning of day 4 you will head for Montebello, Quebec for a delicious brunch at the Chateau Montebello before continuing home. Arrival back in Marion will be early evening.

The price per person is $269.00 with double occupancy and $365. single.

A deposit of $25.00 per person is due February 12th; full payment is due April 12th. For more information or to make reservations call Jean Olifierko in Marion at 748-0543.

Before Fred And Ethel Retire To Their Dream House, They'll Retire Their Mortgage And Save $23,000 In Interest.

SuperMortgage Is Here!

Yes, you can own your own house before you're old and gray. Yes, you can build equity faster and save thousands of dollars in interest.

Here's how SuperMortgage works:

Instead of paying your usual monthly mortgage, you pay half your monthly mortgage every two weeks. Why does that make a difference?

Because one payment every two weeks adds up to 26 payments a year, which is equal to 13 monthly payments. Believe it or not, this sharply reduces the amount of your interest as well as the length of your mortgage. (See chart below.)

To make things even easier, Fairhaven Savings Bank will deduct your SuperMortgage payments right from your NOW Checking or Savings account.

We'll even reduce your initial interest rate by ¼%.

To find out more of the advantages of SuperMortgage, drop by any branch of Fairhaven Savings.

SuperMortgage. Only at Fairhaven Savings Bank.

Regular Mortgage	1/1/86	9.90	$50,000	$445.57	25 Yrs.	$133,671	$83,671		January 2011

In this example, after one year, you will have paid an additional $445.57. This lowers the amount of the loan payable in later years, reducing the loan term by 6 years and producing $23,613.00 in interest savings.

* One-year adjustable rate mortgage with a 2% annual rate cap and a 5% life cap. Rate is based on a one- to four-family owner-occupied home.

BEGINS CELEBRATION OF 250th ANNIVERSARY

The Mattapoisett Congregational Church began celebration of its 250th anniversary on Sunday, February 2nd, by honoring Rev. Donald H. Finley with the title of Pastor Emeritus. The installation was followed by a reception in the Parish Hall.

Founded in the year 1736 as a spin-off from the original church in Rochester, the Mattapoisett Congregational Church is typical of the precinct churches of early New England. To honor this anniversary year, the church has planned a series of events culminating on the actual anniversary itself, July 27.

On February 16th, the first Sunday in Lent, all are invited to participate in a Communion Service in which all living past ministers of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church have been invited to take part. Rev. Frederick Reynard, Rev. Donald Finley and Rev. Paul Myers have all agreed to participate.

Church to Purchase New Organ

The Mattapoisett Congregational Church is in the process of buying a new Allen 4000 Electronic Digital Organ for the church. We feel this is an important purchase for the church as well as benefiting the community. Many local citizens utilize the church for weddings, memorial services, etc., and may wish to help the church in this endeavor.

You may support this project by sending donations to: Mattapoisett Congregational Church Organ Fund, P.O. Box 284, Mattapoisett, MA. 02739.

Please write your name as you would like it to appear on the donor list. Donations may be made as memorials also.

gallery was named in 1957.

Cecil Clark was born in Chicago in 1876 and spent summers in Marion with her family. It was here that she met and later married the dashing writer and international correspondent, Richard Harding Davis. Their home (while not traveling throughout the world) was Marion, and their circle of friends included many artists, writers and theater people. Ethel Barrymore was maid of honor at their wedding, and Charles Dana Gibson was a groomsman.

Cecil Clark Davis had studios all over the world and painted hundreds of portraits in her lifetime. The Marion Art Center will display a retrospective sampling of her work from several private collections. The show will run through March 12th. The gallery is open Tuesday through Friday 2 to 5 p.m. and Saturdays 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p,m.

There will be a lecture on Sunday, February 16th, at 4:00 p.m. Local historian Edmond Tripp will discuss the life of Mrs. Davis and relate some amusing and interesting anecdotes about her famous friends. Wendy Bidstrup will examine the paintings from an art historian's point of view. The public is invited to learn more about this fascinating woman and her world.

on Mattapoisett Neck Road, said they plan to renovate the former store, which has been empty for three years, into a two-story Colonial-style residence.

The concerns of abutters were discussed and they were assured the addition of a second story would add only six feet to the height of the building to make it compatible with the height of most other residences in the area.

Realtor Bruce E. Rocha, agent for the sale and renovator of the building, assured the four abutters that the building would not be any closer to the property line than it is now and there will be absolutely no structural changes that would move it closer to the property line.

VISIT TO BARNEY'S JOY

A visit to a beach in the winter oftentimes gives one a sense of solitude and calm. Despite this feeling, changes are taking place in the cold months and life has adapted itself to this harsher environment. The beach profile changes from summer to winter due to changing wave and wind patterns and winter storms. Plant and animal life adjust to this in order to survive through this harsh period.

A visit to Barney's Joy beach with the Lloyd Center's Diane Duprey will explore these changes on Sunday, February 16th, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Discussions of the alteration from a summer beach to a winter beach will be augmented by the participants engaging in a beach profile and sand sifting exercises. The adaptations of the municipality based on their population of elders, age 60+ according to 1980 U.S. census figures, at a rate of $1.70 per elder. No grant was awarded for less than $600., regardless of community size.

"Services provided by and through local Councils on Aging and Senior Centers reach an estimated 360,000 elders around the Commonwealth. Increases in the awards for local Councils reflect the key role they play in the efforts of the Executive Office of Elder Affairs to serve Massachusetts elders", said Rowland. "These local agencies maximize the effect of every dollar they receive from the Commonwealth; using volunteers among elders, they demonstrate that elders truly are a resource, and not a burden in their communities."

Funds are granted for a variety of uses and complement more than $10.5 million in local appropriations for Council activities. Programs supported by the funds include: staffing, facility maintenance, and a variety of transportation, outreach, health/fitness, nutrition, and peer support program activities. Other award categories include removal of architectural barriers, other physical improvements, and the purchase of equipment.

In addition to important ongoing activities like hot lunches and exercise programs, the Councils are innovating increasingly sophisticated new programs. For example, the Bourne Council on Aging is taking the initiative to recruit a volunteer nurse to develop health workshops and assist in outreach programs. Councils on Aging can be springboards for activities including health, outreach social, and intergenerational events and so extend the already strong elder network in Massachusetts.

PAINTINGS OF RALPH FASANELLA ON EXHIBIT

The New Bedford Whaling Museum and The Labor Education Center of Southeastern Massachusetts University announce the opening of the exhibition "URBAN VISIONS: The Paintings of Ralph Fasanella". Organized by Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art at Cornell University and currently on a national tour, "URBAN VISIONS" will be on view at the Whaling Museum from March 6 through May 5. A film series related to the exhibition will be featured during the course of the exhibition.

Using the setting of city streets and New York neighborhoods that formed the background of his life, Ralph Fasanella celebrates in bold and vivid paintings various aspects of urban living, from baseball games to political struggles to everyday working class activities. Fasanella's long commitment to the American labor movement has found expression in powerful canvases, including the famous series depicting the Bread and Roses Textile Strike of 1912.

Surprisingly, the works included in "URBAN VISIONS" are those by an untrained artist.

Ralph Fasanella, armed with an intuitive sense of design, dogged determination and devotion to a clearly realized mission, has, over the past 40 years, become among the most expressive American painters in this subject area. In that time he has produced over hundreds of canvases, many on a very large scale in which perspective, chronology and color are used to communicate a moment, incident or movement in American history.

The Whaling Museum hopes you will come to see Mr. Fasanella's festive blues, flaming reds and somber grays during the only New England showing of this vibrant exhibit, which has opened to public acclaim at Cornell and in Albany.

The New Bedford Whaling Museum is open Monday - Saturday, 9 to 5; Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. Admission is $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for children, $2.00 for seniors. For information on the exhibit and related film series, call 997-0046.

twenty hours per week, the Chaplain is at the Hospital on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 2 to 6 p.m. and on Wednesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Reverend Van Iderstine was gorn in Akron, Ohio and received her Bachelors Degree in English at Hiram College in Ohio. She then traveled to Texas where she took a position at a medical school, coordinating courses on medical ethics and the humanities for senior medical students. Interested in all aspects of medical ethics, the concepts of Hospice and Death & Dying, and recognizing her desire to work with people, she chose to pursue the ministry. She moved to Boston, noted for its Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) Movement, where she earned her Master's Degree in Divinity at Andover Newton Theological School. She was ordained in June 1983 in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). "CPE focuses on inter-personal relationships and hones one's skills as a chaplain", explains Rev. Van Iderstine. "A CPE Unit represents 400 training hours, including 200 hours of group dynamics, supervision, and lectures, and 200 hours of on-site training, usually in a hospital or nursing home setting, and occasionally in a church setting." Rev. Van Iderstine continues her CPE training, having earned 2 Units and an advanced standing status.

In addition to her Chaplain duties, Rev. Van Iderstine is a folk singer and guitarist in local churches. She resides in Plymouth with her husband, Ted, and her step-son, Joel.

THINK BEFORE YOU LIFT

If there's a box to be moved at work, you just move it. You seldom think about how to do it properly. Right?

If there's a piece of furniture to be moved at home, you just move it. You seldom wait until you can get help. Right?

It's this tendency to want to get the obstacle out of the way as quickly as possible, and the erroneous belief that you can manage anything you can lift, that causes most back injuries. Sprains and strains of the back are the third major cause of activity limitation, superseded only by heart conditions and arthritis/rheumatism conditions.

It is estimated that well over a million men, women and children suffer back injuries each year, mainly because they lift without thinking.

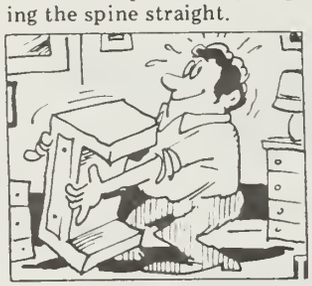
In addition to the agonizing pain that is experienced by the victims, it should be noted that temporary and permanent disablement from back injury accounts for millions of hours of lost time, millions of dollars in lost salaries, and tens of millions of dollars in lost production. A pitiful waste of energy and money!

Most disabling back injuries come from falls and careless lifting. They occur on the job, and at home as well. Thus, it is important to protect your back by learning, observing, and teaching preventive habits.

Following are the Rules for Lifting as recommended by doctors of chiropractic, who are specialists in treating health problems related to the spine and nervous system.

— Size up the object to be lifted; decide how best to get a good grip on it.

— Plant your feet about 10-12 inches apart and solidly close to the object to be lifted. Squat down, keeping the spine straight.



— Lift up with the big muscles of your legs, thighs, arms and shoulders — NOT with the back. Keep the load close to your body.

— Use mechanical lifting devices for moving heavy objects. Get help for large, bulky, awkward, or extra-heavy loads.

— Use rhythm, both alone and in a team effort. Let the load help lift itself.

— Be sure you can see where you're going.

— Keep floors clear of hazards which could cause you to trip or fall.

— Setting the load down is just the reverse of lifting. Keep the back straight, let the legs bend slowly, and set the load down easy.

Prevention is the best way to avoid a back injury. However, if a strain or back injury should occur, no matter how minor, it is wise to visit a doctor of chiropractic immediately. Spinal problems must not be neglected as they can cause or contribute to disorders which appear at many other parts of the body.

CONCERT

Marilynn Mair and Mark Davis bring their unique chamber music sound to the YWCA Standish House, 10 South Sixth Street in a concert on Sunday, February 23rd, at 3 p.m. Since 1975 the Mair-Davis Duo has performed chamber music recitals for guitar and mandolin throughout the U.S. and Europe. Their first record album, Music for Guitar and Mandolin, has won them international praise for their skillful and sensitive performance. It was chosen as one of the "Dozen Best Recordings of 1981" by Guitar and Lute magazine. A second record of Latin American music, Picaflor, has been released on the Titanic label and is already gathering acclaim.

The Duo recently returned from a seven-month European tour where they delighted audiences at music festivals in England, Italy, France and Spain. The Duo performs a wide variety of chamber music. Their program at the Standish House will include works by Albeniz, Villa-Lobos, and Pernambuco.

The Standish Concert Series was funded in part by a grant from the local Arts Council through the Massachusetts Arts Lottery. The Concerts are free and open to the public.
